With >45 years experience in martial arts, Soke Hausel is considered one of the top martial arts instructors in North America. He is also one of the foremost geo-scientists and authors in the world & has been presented some of the more prestigious national & international awards in science.

While at 4 major universities, Grandmaster Hausel's classes were filled to capacity with students from 17 to 89 years in age & included a near even mix of female & male. Many of his students became professional scientists, engineers and martial arts instructors.

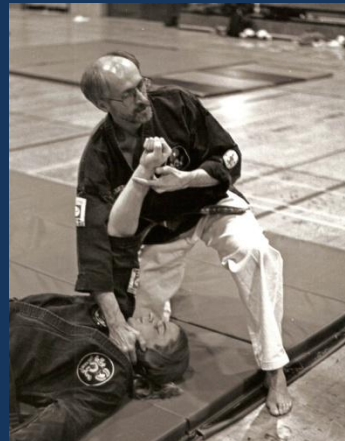

2003 University of Wyoming Karate & Kobudo Seminar

Awarded Grandmaster (Soke) in 1999 and Judan (10th degree black belt) in 2004 at Juko Kai International Hombu & certified by Zen Kokusai Soke Budo/Bugei Remnei, he became the highest ranked member of Seiyo Shorin-Ryu Karate in the world. He now sits on the governing boards of the US Soke Council & World Soke Council.
